

Table 1.

Conscious and Unconscious States of the Archetypal Numinous

Ego Consciousness (Active) Physiological	Ego Unconsciousness (Suspended) Physiological and Psychological	The Collective Unconscious (Archetypes) Instinctual	Developing Maternal Consciousness (Inhibited) Psychological	Maternal Roles (Modified) Behavioral
A participant numinous encounter is a maternal event where an archetypal image appears spontaneously in the participant’s peripheral or physical awareness from the collective unconscious and produces intense sensations, feelings, or behaviors. Discomfort, fear, or trauma are negative feelings or sensations associated with a diagnosis or struggle with an illness which make manifest the experience of a numinous encounter. A diagnosis or struggle with an illness is a maternal event where a numinous encounter produces a feeling or sensation in the participant described as discomfort, fear, or trauma. A participant loss or ending is a negative feeling or	Uncertainty or entering the unknown is an immobilized state suspended between maternal consciousness and the collective unconscious where a numinous archetype is made accessible in the participant’s peripheral and physical awareness by means of a lucid memory trace. Body experiences are sensations or behaviors triggered by uncertainty or entering the unknown where a numinous archetype is made accessible in the participant’s peripheral and physical awareness by means of a lucid memory trace. Synchronicity is “the simultaneous occurrence of a certain psychic state with one or more external events	Guidance from or connection with a father figure is a numinous archetype made accessible in the participant’s peripheral and physical awareness by means of uncertainty or entering the unknown and results in body experiences and synchronicity. Guidance from or connection with a mother figure is a numinous archetype made accessible in the participant’s peripheral and physical awareness by means of uncertainty or entering the unknown and results in body experiences and synchronicity. Guidance from or connection with Spirit is a numinous archetype made accessible in the participant’s peripheral and	Love is a participant numinous meaning described as a sensation or feeling of safety or security. It is associated with a diagnosis or struggle with an illness and subjective understanding that accompanies the assimilation of a numinous archetype in the participant’s personality. Events happening for a reason is a participant numinous meaning described as psychological acceptance having purpose in the future. It is associated with a diagnosis or struggle with an illness and subjective understanding that accompanies the assimilation of a numinous archetype in the participant’s personality. Faith or knowing is a participant numinous	Changes in thinking or consciousness are new attitudes or perspectives of divine grace that result in participant numinous meaning. They are associated with a diagnosis or struggle with an illness and the accommodation of a numinous archetype in the participant’s personality. A change in career or vocation is a participant numinous meaning described as a role driven by a new sense of purpose. It is associated with changes in thinking or consciousness and a diagnosis or struggle with an illness that accompanies the accommodation of a numinous archetype in the participant’s personality. Trying something new or carefree thinking is a participant numinous

Table 1.

Conscious and Unconscious States of the Archetypal Numinous

sensation experienced as prolonged grief or questioning. It is triggered by a numinous encounter when associated with a diagnosis or struggle with an illness and the disappearance of a familiar identity, state, or pattern. Not feeling maternal is a neutral feeling described as denial resulting from participant inadequacy or inability to conceive. It is associated with a loss or ending and a diagnosis or struggle with an illness. Letting go or surrendering control is a neutral feeling described as psychological acceptance having purpose in the moment. It is triggered by a numinous encounter when associated with a loss or ending and the gradual suppression of fear, discomfort, or trauma that accompanies a diagnosis or struggle with an illness.	which appear as meaningful parallels to the momentary subjective state.” (Jung, 1952, para. 850). A meaningful coincidence in time occurs between causally unrelated events associated with two psychic states. An unconscious archetypal image spontaneously appears in the form of a dream, idea, or premonition in the participant’s consciousness and an objective situation coincides with that occurrence (Jung, 1952). Participant numinous meaning is a quality of worthwhile feeling or purpose when a numinous archetype consciously assimilates in the personality of the participant. It is triggered by uncertainty or entering the unknown and associated with a diagnosis or struggle with an illness. Reflection on past experiences are moments of insight associated with	physical awareness by means of uncertainty or entering the unknown and results in body experiences and synchronicity. Guidance from or connection with other women or ancestral wisdom is a numinous archetype made accessible in the participant’s peripheral and physical awareness by means of uncertainty or entering the unknown and results in body experiences and synchronicity. Guidance from or connection with human spirits is a numinous archetype made accessible in the participant’s peripheral and physical awareness by means of uncertainty or entering the unknown and results in body experiences and synchronicity.	meaning described as belief, trust, or confidence in the occurrence of a future event. It is associated with a diagnosis or struggle with an illness and subjective understanding that accompanies the assimilation of a numinous archetype in the participant’s personality. Bonding and attachment pre-birth is a participant numinous meaning described as an image or idea representing an affiliative relationship between a participant and fetus, potentially present before pregnancy. It is associated with a diagnosis or struggle with an illness and subjective understanding that accompanies the assimilation of a numinous archetype in the participant’s personality. Bonding and attachment post-birth is a participant numinous meaning described as an affiliative	meaning described as purpose aligned with the pursuit of a worthwhile endeavor. It is associated with changes in thinking or consciousness and a diagnosis or struggle with an illness that accompanies the accommodation of a numinous archetype in the participant’s personality.
--	--	--	--	--

Table 1.

Conscious and Unconscious States of the Archetypal Numinous

Longing is a neutral feeling described as a need or desire for someone or something. It is triggered by uncertainty or entering the unknown when associated with a loss or ending and the suppression of fear, discomfort, or trauma that accompanies a diagnosis or struggle with an illness.	uncertainty or entering the unknown where a numinous archetype is assimilated in the participant's personality and results in unlimited versions of understanding. Inward listening or dreaming are waking and sleeping states associated with uncertainty or entering the unknown where a numinous archetype is assimilated in the participant's personality and results in unlimited versions of understanding. Cultural influences are historical, familial, or social factors associated with uncertainty or entering the unknown where a numinous archetype is assimilated in the participant's personality and results in unlimited versions of understanding.		relationship between a participant and newborn, potentially present before birth. It is associated with caregiver adequacy and ability, a diagnosis or struggle with an illness, and subjective understanding that accompanies the assimilation of a numinous archetype in the participant's personality. Something missing after giving birth is a participant numinous meaning described as a pre-birth attachment loss or ending. It is associated with a diagnosis or struggle with an illness and subjective understanding that accompanies the assimilation of a numinous archetype in the participant's personality. Not ready or spiritual connection not suitable is a participant numinous meaning described as waiting for the occurrence of a future pregnancy. It is associated with a diagnosis
---	---	--	--	--

Table 1.

Conscious and Unconscious States of the Archetypal Numinous or struggle with an illness and a loss or ending that accompanies the assimilation of a numinous archetype in the participant's personality.

--	--	--	--	--